DIRECTOR'S NOTE

First and foremost, thank you so much for seeing this production. Not only am I thanking you for supporting Town and Country Players, but for supporting local theater and artists everywhere. Art is so important in this world, and after almost two years without it in its traditional form, it is a thrill to bring a production before an audience once again.

The holidays have always been my favorite time of year. I basically have Hanukkah gelt and Christmas eggnog coursing through my veins. The minute November 1st hits, I start blasting the yuletide bangers, screening my favorite specials, and trying to scope out the best light shows in the tri-state area. Simply put: I am the real-life Buddy the Elf. So, when the opportunity arose for me to write and direct the holiday show at T&C, my hand raised like an over eager student who knew all the answers.

My vision was to create something both classic and modern, using the framing of a typical holiday special to help us navigate our way through holly jolly hit after hit. I wanted there to be humor and fun, and most of all, a cast that truly wanted to be here because 1. They love to perform and 2. They love to make holiday magic. Writing the show was an easy part of the process. It was assembling the cast and creative team that was the puzzle that needed solving.

I must say, not to hype you up too much before a show, that we assembled the Avengers: Endgame of holiday talent for this show. This cast is honestly incredibly talented, but more importantly, a joy to work with. I believe in my rehearsal rooms to paint in broad strokes and allow my actors the freedom to fill in those details so their voices are heard. The choices these actors have made... they make me laugh. They make me cry. They make me scream giddily in pure joy. I am so incredibly proud, and I know that they will blow you away!

I'd like to thank some individuals for making this show possible. This show would not be possible without our greatest cheerleader and defender, our producer, Sarah LeClair. Sarah led from the behind the scenes with an openness and positivity that truly spread to myself and the rest of the production team. Next, I'd like to thank our incredible stage manager, Terri Bentley, for her can-do attitude, her dedication to this production, and her unique style and flare. Heidi New, our Music Director, is an absolute miracle worker, truly going above and beyond to make sure that every number was well rehearsed, stylistically fun, and showcased everyone perfectly. And Maggie Brennan, our Choreographer, made magic time and time again with every dance she choreographed. She made simple combinations into outstanding production numbers that will make you want to join in on the fun. I'd also like to thank Matt, Scott, Barbara, and Susan, our amazing technical team, for helping bring the world of this show to life through lights, sound, and jaw dropping holiday set dressing. You have made my holiday dreams come true. I also want to thank the board of Town and Country Players for believing in me and allowing me the opportunity to create this production for you! Lastly, I'd like to thank you, our audience and patrons, for your continued support. We hope to see you for more productions throughout T&C's 75th season in 2022.

Enjoy the show everyone!

T&C WANTS YOU TO KNOW.....

A NOTE FROM T&C'S PRESIDENT

Welcome to Town and Country Players' 74th season. So far this year, we have presented 4 online productions, three outdoor productions: 12 Angry Jurors, PUFFS, Or: Seven Increasingly Eventful Years at a Certain School of Magic and Magic, and The Miracle Worker and two indoor productions: Deathtrap and Young Frankenstein.

As we close out the year, we are happy to present you with two special events: The Best from the Best and our traditional holiday show, this year titled There's Snow Place Like Home for the Holidays.

Preparations for our landmark 75th season continue as well. The 75th Anniversary Season will feature productions of Guys and Dolls, A Streetcar Named Desire, The Sound of Music, Clue, and A Christmas Carol, alongside several special productions. We will also have events to recognize all those who have played their part in our long history, weather on-stage, backstage, running the front of house operations, donor, and/or as our valued patrons.

I became president of Town and Country Players in January of 2020. While the challenges of leading a community theater during the past 20 months have been vastly different than what I expected at that time, I am proud of what Town and Country Players has been able to accomplish. While our stage was dark during these months, it was far from a year and a half without any activity. With generous donations from our patrons, and hard work by our membership, we were able to produce eleven different Zoom productions, participate in food drives, hold youth workshops, and sing to and send cards to senior citizens and other home bound individuals in the Central Bucks area.

I would like to close by thanking our patrons and membership for their donations to, and support of, Town and Country Players this past year and am pleased to be able see everyone in person again.
